Carmival Week And this store's advertisement greets you in a new dress in honor of the occasion. Don't you think it chaste and refined looking? We hope you will like it, for we are going to wear it in future. The reason for this decided change in type is simple—we want our ads. to have an individuality in appearance, as well as otherwise, that is all their own; we want them easily recognized-easily read-easily comprehended. While we try to make them bright and attractive in every way possible, they are not written with the view of winning favor from a literary standpoint, but as news. They are simply "NEWS ITEMS GATHERED IN A GREAT STORE" and put in a shape we hope you find readable.

To the Visitors Within our city we extend hearty greeting and wish for them a merry time with King Nottoc in his revels. They are cordially invited to visit this store, whether on a shopping tour or solely on pleasure bent. In either case they will find many things to interest them here.
